PROGRAM NAME: Forensic Studies – Forensic Scientist Track

FACULTY CONTACT: Tyrone Powers
PROGRAM SCHOOL: Business & Law

AACC faculty developed the following charts to encourage greater success in your program of study. Why take classes in this order? The courses in the first column are designed to prepare you for courses in the second column and so on. Students with no developmental requirements in English or reading may register for a total of 18 credits per term. If you are a part-time student, you may take fewer credits by dividing the recommended courses across multiple terms to accommodate your schedule.

1. Successful completion of ENG-121 fully satisfies the English composition general education requirement. Students who complete ENG-121 will need to take an additional elective course with the approval of the department chair to meet the 60 credit hours required for the degree.

Note: Minimum of 60 credit hours required for degree.

SOC-111 meets the diversity requirement for this degree.

This program has a Fast Track option for those holding a college degree. For more Fast Track information, see online catalog <http://catalog.aacc.edu>

Where course choices exist within programs, transfer students should consult with an advisor and use transfer resources to make course choices consistent with the requirements of their intended transfer school.

 This course has a credit course prerequisite. Specific course prerequisite information can be obtained by looking at the Course Descriptions section of the College Catalog or in the Schedule of Classes.

 This course meets the diversity requirement or the diversity requirement can be met simultaneously as you satisfy this requirement. Only one diversity class is required to meet the diversity requirement. Courses which meet the diversity requirement can be found in General Education Requirements section of the College Catalog or by looking for the diversity symbol placed next to course descriptions in the Schedule of Credit Classes.

 (GER) Information on courses that meet General Education Requirements (GER) can be found in General Education Requirements section of the College Catalog or by looking course descriptions in the Schedule of Credit Classes for the open book symbol and the name of the GER category
